

Maybe

twi - July 4, 2003

Everyday, every way, I wake up with something on my mind,
I get so much resistance, baby, coming from behind.

My past just tells me forget it,

But my heart, just won't let me.

when I turn and see your smile

And I know you don't know me,

And I know you can't see it at all,

But I can't stop this feeling from taking a hold.

Maybe, maybe.

I've got a 1,000 reasons why I should get you out of my mind.

But I can't think of one, whenever you walk by.

My friends all tell me, forget it,

But my heart, just won't let me.

when I turn to see you smile

And I know you don't know me,

And I know you can't see it at all,

But I can't stop this feeling from taking a hold.

Maybe, maybe.

Interlude/solo

Bridge:

Every move that I make,
Every chance that I take,
Every dream that I dream,
Every song that I sing,
Every hope in my heart,
I don't know how to stop,
Every thing that I do,
I keep thing of you,
I don't know how to stop,
I don't know how to stop!

Background vocal - I've got to find a way

Background vocal - Maybe

And I know you don't know me,

And I know you can't see it at all,

But I can't stop this feeling from taking a hold.

Maybe, maybe.

- This song is full of hope about a new relationship - maybe it will work out!
- The song is more of a pop song with slang expressions
- The bridge part would have three parts, the main part and two background vocals that would repeat their lines over and over
